Hema Malini moved to tears by Esha Deol's heartwarming message on Indian Idol 12

Hema Malini, who will be seen as a special guest on Sunday night's episode of singing reality show Indian Idol 12, was moved to tears by a special message from her daughter Esha Deol. In a promo video shared online by Sony TV, Hema was seen getting emotional as Esha said she is 'blessed' to be her daughter. Aap log sab ke liye Hema ji ek dream girl hai lekin hum log ke liye (Hema ji might be 'dream girl' for all of you, but for us) she is not just the dream girl, she is our amma," Esha said, adding that dance is Hema's 'first love'. Esha said that Hema, along with her and Ahana Deol, have made an immense contribution to popularising Indian classical dance and culture. "I am only proud and proud of you, and blessed to have a mother like you," she added. Hema, wiping her tears away, said, "She is my lovely baby. Esha and Ahana. Thanks for giving all these beautiful pleasures of life to me. Reportedly, Hema also opened up about her love story with Dharmendra on Indian Idol 12, and how her father initially tried to keep them away from each other. "Usually my mother or my aunt used to accompany me on shoots but during the shoot of one of the songs, my father accompanied me. He was worried that I and Dharam ji shouldn't spend some time alone as he knew we were friends," she said. "I remember this when we used to travel in a car, my father used to immediately sit next to me. But even Dharam ji was no less. He used to sit in the next seat," she added. Hema was last seen on the big screen in Ramesh Sippy's Shimla Mirchi, alongside Rajkumar Rao and Rakul Preet Singh. After being delayed for several years, the film released theatrically in January last year. Hema Malini was left teary-eyed on watching a video message from her daughter, Esha Deol, on Indian Idol 12. The episode will be aired tonight. Watch the promo here

Ishaan Khatter shares 'THEN & NOW' photo to wish 'bade bhai' Shahid Kapooron birthday with a Bollywood twist

Handsome hunk Shahid Kapoor has turned 40 today (February 25). The actor who is known to play diverse roles with ease is celebrating his big day with his family. Brother Ishaan Khatter on Thursday, took to Instagram to dedicate a post to the Bollywood actor. Ishaan shared a then and now picture with his 'bade bhai' and said that he has always been with him through every turn of his life. In the collage shared by Ishaan Khatter, the two brothers can be seen flaunting their infectious smiles. In one of the pictures, Shahid can be seen holding little Ishaan while the other part is from their appearance in Karan Johar's Koffee With Karan together. Giving a Bollywood twist to his birthday wish, the Dhadak actor wrote, Shahid Kapoor has been in the industry for more than 18 years while Ishaan Khatter entered Bollywood with his 2018 film Beyond The Clouds. He carved a niche for himself in the industry in a very short span of time. Meanwhile, Ishaan has always claimed that Shahid has been a shining example for him when it comes to films and playing difficult roles. Soon after the release of Shahid Kapoor's Kabir Singh, Ishaan had shared an appreciation post for Shahid. He had said, "As happy as can be for my big brother today who's always been a shining example of a human being for me.

of a human being for me. Not a doubt in the world that you deserve the smashing success but it continues to baffle me how you were able to play one of the most complex, lost and damaged characters with such perfection while returning home to being the most centered, loving and responsible family man I know." On the work front, Shahid Kapoor is all set to return on the big screens with his upcoming film Jersey. The film is a Hindi remake of the 2019 Telugu hit of the same name. wish I am very happy with whatever we have done so far. Really enjoying journey and the Shahid also spoke about Jersey on a Twitter chat with his fans earlier. He said: "Just trying our best to make a good film. But I
